This JCR notes:

- i) Budget
- ii) Social Budget
- iii) Social Secretary
- iv) £1500
- v) Jazzy Handout
- vi) Not a happy bunny

This JCR further notes:

- vii) That due to circumstances beyond the control of the JCR committee, the i) is not available at the moment, and thus neither is the ii).

viii) The fact that a ii) has not been agreed upon is causing the iii) problems in doing his job.

ix) Furthermore, the fact that a ii) has not been agreed upon, is causing the iii) to become vi).

x) The iii) has estimated that he requires a maximum (upper limit) of iv) to organise the terms social events, details of which are given on the v).

This JCR therefore proposes:

xi) To mandate the iii) to spend up to a total of iv) on the terms social events, as described in the term card and on the v), with money from the JCR Entz levy and the JCR budget.

Proposed: Bobby Sharp
Seconded: Oliver Davidson

MOTION PASSED

20. JCR EMAILS

This JCR notes:

- (i) email
- (ii) overcrowding of inboxes
- (iii) general cyber-annoyance
- (iv) likelihood of JCR members actually bothering to read JCR emails

This JCR further notes:

- (v) that we live in a technologically advanced cyber-age, in which methods of instantaneous communication such as (i) have flourished.
- (vi) that in some organisations this beautiful Zeitgeist has become marred by the (ii), creating (iii).
- (vii) that this (iii) has become greater within the membership of the JCR as a result of increased (i) traffic on the JCR mailing list and a persistent (ii)
- (viii) that (iii) is not the only disadvantage of overly-frequent JCR (i), but also that this (ii) will decrease (iv) making (i) a generally less effective method of instantaneous communication.

This JCR therefore proposes:

(ix) to limit, where possible, the (ii) by encouraging the JCR Committee to use more effectively the weekly JCR (i) (x) to remind those using the JCR mailing list that there exists a weekly JCR (i) for items which do not require immediate action.

Proposed: Michael Haynes
Seconded: Clarissa McMaster

21. SHIT JCR EMAILS

This JCR notes:

- i) Shit
- ii) JCR emails
- iii) super annoying
- iv) harmless 'funny' banter
- v) severe consequences
- vi) feedback system

This JCR further notes:

- vii) That i) ii) are iii).
- viii) iv) in ii) is i) and iii).

Minutes

of the 2nd ordinary JCR meeting of Hilary Term 2011

This JCR therefore proposes:

The perpetrators sending these i) ii) should suffer v).
Additionally, a ii) vi) should be implemented so no malignant iv) finds its way into our inboxes again.

Proposed: Jon Dallimore
Seconded: Max Gordon-Brown

For: 17
Against: 4
Abstentions: 10

MOTION PASSES

22. BABIES WEEKEND

This JCR notes:

- i) Babies weekend
- ii) Jesus College
- iii) £30
- iv) £50 per weekend
- v) £200

This JCR further notes:

vi) In the first meeting regarding i), ii) told the committee that it would not provide as much funding for i) as in previous years, including the food (Krispy Kreme and drinks) which most of us had in the JCR on both mornings.

vii) ii) has also advised that invitations express that students should bring iii), covering the meal out on Saturday and approximately £15 to spend in Oxford.
viii) Other possible events proposed (G&Ds; bowling) may also stretch the iii) many students will bring.

This JCR therefore proposes:

ix) to give the Babies Committee iv) (working out at iv) over four weekends), to ensure all Babies have the best possible time in Oxford.

Proposed: Megan Lynch
Seconded: Stuart Macaulay

For: Majority
Against: -
Abstentions: -

MOTION PASSES

23. ROYAL WEDDING

This JCR notes:

- i) Prince William Arthur Philip Louis Windsor of Wales
- ii) Catherine Elizabeth Middleton

- iii) Holy Matrimony
- iv) Historic Occasion for all Members of the Commonwealth
- v) A Fitting Tribute
- vi) Royal Wedding Memorabilia
- vii) £60

This JCR further notes:

viii) On the 16th of November 2010 it was announced by Clarence House that i) and ii) would be joined in iii).
ix) This is an iv) and the marriage will happen on the 29th of April 2011. As all our members are no doubt aware, our college has strong links with the monarchy and was founded by Queen Elizabeth I in 1571. Therefore it is only right that we should mark this iv) with v) in the form of vi).

This JCR therefore proposes:

x) To give up to vii) to the welfare officers to purchase vi) to be enjoyed by the whole JCR

Proposed: Joss Knight
Seconded: Robert Trafford

MOTION PASSES

24. JCTT SUN BED

This JCR notes:

- (i) Jesus College Tanning Team
- (ii) A 16 Tube Pine Double Sunbed with 100 watt Philips Performance tubes, which means it tans your body faster reaching every part of your body
- (iii) £816.00
- (iv) Victory against the pale Tabs

This JCR further notes:

- (v) That (i) plays an important role in College life, but, that given the nature of the sport, have been unable to secure funding from the Amalgamated Sports budget.
- (vi) JCTT will hold termly trials to ensure the highest standards of tanning sportsmen and women are achieved.
- (vii) JCTT is willing to extend its team membership but not beyond four teams, as this makes training more of a challenge.
- (viii) JCBC has too much money lauded upon it, although JCTT is not averse to training on a boat. Preferably a Yacht. In the Bahamas.
- (ix) JCTT captain is currently negotiating with Cambridge to organise varsity for Mykonos next term and JCTT must thus maximise their training regime now.

This JCR therefore proposes:

- (x) To provide (i) with (iii) to purchase (ii) as (v) and (vi), such that (vii) and due to the fact that (viii) and pivotally that the (ix), on the grounds that Jesus College would hope to ensure (iv).
- (xi) (i) would like to make clear that (ii) will be available for all members of the JCR, even those who do not tan competitively in a quest to augment the JCR's (already high) positive aesthetic over the next few months.

Proposed: WJH (JCTT Social Secretary)
Seconded: MGB (JCTT Mens' Captain)

For: 20

Against: 11

- (ii) A college mascot
- (iii) Lower Second Class Degree
- (iv) Empty Room

- (v) The difficulty of finding employment in the recession
- (vi) JCR members' charitable empathy

This JCR further notes:

- (vii) Alex Evans has an (iv), and (i) has a (iii) and may struggle to get a job due to (v) (viii) due to his (iii) and (v), (i) should use his non-academic prowess to save college.

This JCR therefore proposes:

- (viii) That given the frequently noted (vi) and that (vii), each JCR member should pay a small fee (tbc) to allow (i) to become (ii) and live in Alex Evans' (iv).

Proposed: MGB

Seconded: Jocelyn Knight

This JCR further notes:

viii) Every year Jesus College hires ii) in Trinity Term in order to have iii) whilst i).
ix) This costs vii) and will therefore require a charge of vi) to be paid on an opt-out basis by every JCR member. With a subsidy of vi) this would reduce the cost to v) per JCR member.

This JCR therefore proposes:

x) To vote on one of the following three options:

- I) No JCR hire of punts in TT MMXI
- II) No JCR subsidy of punts in TT MMXI
- III) JCR subsidy of £600 of punts in TT MMXI and mandate the JCR Vice President to book punts for Trinity Term MMXI for the use of Jesus College JCR Members.
