19. POOL TABLE

This JCR Notes:

- (i) The Jesus College Pool Team
- (ii) Pool Table
- (iii) Superior Performance

This JCR Further Notes:

- (iv) The (i) requires a fully functional (ii) if they are to continue their tradition of (iii).

(v) The JCR (ii) does not currently enable the (i) to attain their usual levels of (iii), due to a large rip.

(vi) It would be to the benefit of (i), and the rest of the JCR, to get the (ii) re-covered.

This JCR Therefore Proposes:

(vii) To stump up the cost of getting the JCR (ii) re-covered, in the hope that (iii) will be facilitated once more.

Proposed: Ben Ruddle

Seconded: Matt Jones

- viii) Corpus Christi Auditorium

This JCR further notes:

- ix) That i) is extremely generous and supportive when it comes to ii) for iii)
- x) That vi) are very good plays
- xi) That ii), such as putting on a play, requires quite a lot of financial backing

This JCR therefore proposes:

- xii) That i) will lend iv) v) in order to put on a double bill of vi) in vii) in viii) with opportunities for iii) to get involved
- xix) That iv) will pay the JCR back the v) plus any surplus

Proposed: Natasha Frost

- iii) Lenny Henry
- iv) Freshers' Week
- v) Menial tasks

This JCR further notes:

- vi) That vi) is a fun occasion, which often has a lot of v) to do, such as cleaning up.
- vii) That i) (not to be confused with ii) or iii) would be great at doing this, as he has so much spare time after not having filmed Get Your Own Back for nearly a decade

This JCR therefore proposes:

- viii) To mandate the JCR Treasurer to look into the cost of hiring i) to do said v) during Freshers' Week, paying a maximum of £500.

Proposed: Ollie Capehorn
Seconded: Alfie Fielder
