viii) this year, iii) has bought the rights iv) previously on ii), including all v) and vi).
ix) a subscription to iii) would cost the JCR £35 a month extra.
x) this is a small amount compared to the current cost of i).

It therefore proposes:

xi) to instruct the Treasurer to add iii) onto the current i) subscription to allow all JCR members to enjoy the iv) on these channels.

Proposed: Tom Eastell

Seconded: Leo Gebbie

Leo adopts the Motion – Kartik seconds
Rosie notes that the current price of sky is ~£90, and that this half the normal price due to us being a charity.

Move to Vote – Vote passes unanimously

20. TANNING TEAM FUNDING

This JCR notes:

- i) Jesus College Tanning Team
- ii) Amalgamated Clubs
- iii) Tanning & Bronzing
- iv) Oxford University
- v) Bottle of Cava in Parkend
- vi) foreign aids, notably Primark's Sunkissed Range of Fake Tan

This JCR further notes:

- vii) The i) is undisputedly awesome and open to everyone.
- viii) Whilst not recognised as a real sports team by ii), iii) is noted as an official sport by iv), summarised by the allocation of a v) for both the Men's and Women's Captains.
- ix) Due to the adverse weather conditions in Oxford and the surrounding area, the i) often need to enhance their tan with vi).
- x) These vi) have been declared legal in all iv) Tanning Competitions.
- xi) In previous years, the JCR has accommodated for the lack of alternative funding sources by providing the i) with money to purchase vi) for use by all.

It therefore proposes:

- xii) To provide the Captains of i) with up to £50 to purchase vi) to enable the members of the Jesus College Tanning Team to continue to display world class iii) on their voyages around iv).

Proposed: Thomas the TANengine Eastell

Seconded: Angy TANgy Knill

Angy adopts the motion, Kat seconds.

Angy notes it's a 'legit' team, where we crew date and then get cava at Park End.

Natasha notes that in previous years there were mits purchased as well, this be happening

First crew date will be on Wednesday –speed of reply is crucial

Move to vote – Motion passes unanimously

21. TSAF 2014 FUNDING

This JCR notes:

- i) Turl Street Arts Festival (TSAF)
- ii) Hilary Term
- iii) tradition
- iv) cooperation
- v) fair financial contribution
- vi) £750
- vii) wickedly sick

This JCR further notes:.

- viii) That the annual i) during ii) is a highly successful iii) and admirably encourages iv) and unity between the Turl Street colleges.
- ix) That funding for the i) is asked for every year, and Jesus College JCR has always made a v) to the festival.
- x) That the sum of vi) would be considered a v) to match the constitutional financial pledges both Lincoln and Exeter colleges have made to the i).
- xi) That attaining the sum of vi) sooner rather than later allows the i) committee to establish the i) budget early on and therefore make more efficient festival preparations, greatly improving the grand assortment of events on offer in ii).
- xii) That the treasurer of i) this year is a Jesubite, and is keen to ensure more money is spent on vii) events as opposed to non-vii) events.

xiii) That Megan, our chaplain, will cry if this motion doesn't pass.

This JCR therefore proposes:

To provide the treasurer of i) 2014 the sum of vi) to add to the i) account as a v), made in the spirit of iii) and iv) and to advocate the preparation of a vii) festival.

Proposed: Douglas Cameron-Hobbs

Seconded: Lydia Cooper
