19. OUSU HUSTS

Should have been there....

20. SYRIA POETRY ANTHOLOGY

This JCR notes:

- (i) humanitarian crisis in Syria
- (ii) 2 million people
- (iii) 100,000 people
- (iv) of all time
- (v) Oxford Students' Oxfam Group

AGENDA

of the 3rd ordinary JCR meeting of Michaelmas Term 2013

- (vi) poetry anthology
- (vii) Oxford University Society
- (viii) Oxford Student PEN
- (ix) Oxfam Syria Crisis Appeal

This JCR notes

- x) The i) has forced ii) to flee their homes, half of them children.
- xi) The i) has been on-going for 2 years and the UN estimates iii) have been killed.
- xii) This i) is the worst displacement crisis iv) and the second worst refugee crisis iv).
- xiii) The v) is producing a vi) reflecting on some of the themes of the i), in association with the vii) and viii)
- xiv) The vi) will bring together work by Oxford-based students and poets with new translations of Syrian poetry.
- xv) Afza Ali, this year's winner of the £3,000 Christopher Tower Prize for young poets, will be contributing.

This JCR believes

- xvi) There is value in encouraging discussion about and raising awareness of the humanitarian aspects of a crisis often viewed in purely political terms.
- xvii) The production and distribution of the vi) will do this, and reach a different audience to that which might otherwise engage itself with these issues.

xviii) Encouraging artistic endeavour in the university and appreciation of literature in the JCR is valuable.

This JCR therefore resolves

- xix) To purchase 30 copies of a vi) being produced by the v) at a cost of £2 each to be delivered in 7th week.
- xx) The vi) is not intended to be a fundraising effort, instead focusing on awareness, but if any profits are made they will be donated to the ix)

Proposed by: Emilia Carslaw

Seconded by: Aida Alonzo

- Emilia – Oxfam are doing this as a mechanism to raise awareness
- Leo – Asks where they're going to be
- Emilia – In the JCR, just for everyone to read
- Leo – Why 30
- Emilia – was the amount suggested and this is a good number

Move to vote – vote passes unanimously

21. MEDICAL SOCIETY FUNDING

This JCR notes:

- i) The Alec M Cooke Medical Society
- ii) Open to all students in college
- iii) £250
- iv) Wine and snacks
- v) Exciting speakers

This JCR further notes:

- vii) That i) is ii)
- viii) That iii) would help i) cover the costs of iv) and v)
- ix) That the sum of approximately iii) has been provided to i) in previous years

It therefore proposes:

To provide i) with the sum of iii) to enrich College with the presence of v)

Proposed: Alex Mahatantila

Seconded: Jo Lau

ALEX HAS NOTHING TO ADD

Rosie notes that this is something that is normally passed because the clubs pass their constitution through the JCR so we can give them funding
Niall and Ellie ask who is speaking and are the advertised – yes they will be and therefore we will know who the speakers are

Move to vote- motion passes with one abstention

22. HISTORY SOCIETY FUNDING

This JCR notes:

- i) The JR Green History Society
- ii) Open to all students in college
- iii) £350
- iv) Wine
- v) Exciting speakers

AGENDA

of the 3rd ordinary JCR meeting of Michaelmas Term 2013

vi) More wine

This JCR further notes:

- vii) That i) is ii)
- viii) That iii) would help i) cover the costs of iv), v), and vi)
- ix) That the sum of iii) has been provided to i) in previous years

It therefore proposes:

To provide i) with the sum of iii) to enrich College with the presence of v) and vi)

Proposed: Sophia Clark
Seconded: Flossie Hunt

Sophia notes that this one of the oldest history societies in Oxford and we ought to vote

Move to vote – motion passes unanimously

23. DINNER-DANCE BUSES

This JCR notes:

- i) Dinner Dance
- ii) Witney Lakes
- iii) £2000
- iv) Coach Hire
- v) Jess Rodger
- vi) JCR

This JCR further notes:

In order to travel to i) at ii) iv) will be needed. In order to subsidise student tickets for i) it has been suggested that the Vi) pay the sum of iii) towards iv).

It therefore proposes:

To provide Vi) with the sum of iii) to subsidise student tickets for i) by contributing to payment of iv)

Proposed: Jessica Rodger
Seconded: Anna Maguire

JESS NOTES THAT THE DINNER-DANCE IS OPEN BUT WANT TO FUND THE BUSES, AND IF NOT THEN THE PRICE WILL RAISE FROM £45 TO £50

Niall asks what the excess money would be spent on – it would be returned to the JCR

Andrew suggests that everyone should sign up because Dinner Dance is AWESOME

Anna asks if they know where it is – yes they are a local company

Jonny asks how much wine there is – there are 5 bottles per table and then we can choose per table so that everyone maximises on the wine – house wine and beer will also be discounted at the bar

Move to vote – motion passes unanimously

24. JCR LOCKERS

This JCR notes:

- (i) Lockers
- (ii) JCR

- (iii) Development Fund
- (iv) Governing Body
- (v) Treasurer
- (vi) £805

This JCR further notes:

There are now some (i) in the (ii), but it would be good to have more

We have permission to put another 36 (i) by the library

We have been given money from the (iii) for these (i)

This money has to be approved by (iv), which next meets on the 4th December

It would be good to get these (i) delivered by the end of term

It therefore proposes:

To allow the (ii) (v) to use (vi) of (ii) money to purchase the lockers now, in the expectation that college will refund the (ii) by the end of term

Proposed: Rosanna Colthorpe
Seconded: Eleanor Armstrong

ROSIE WANTS TO FUND THEM EARLY SO THAT WE CAN HAVE THEM AT THE START OF NEXT TERM, IT'S UNLIKELY THAT THE MOVE WILL BE BLOCKED BY COLLEGE

It is asked how often they will be cleared – at least once a year if not more often (termly) and possibly more often.

It is also noted that the lockers at the bottom of 18 have gone (it looks better without them) apparently) but if we still need more after that then we can sort that later.

Move to vote – vote passes unanimously

24. ANNOUNCEMENTS PERIOD

Dougie notes that this is Queer week, and that there is a bop on Saturday night if anyone wants to go – there are straight people there too

Emilia asks for a vote on what the ballot should be on this week – More Funny was chosen

Andy – Cocktails in the MCR in aid for JCBC there will be no sanctioned rowing chat in the event

Eva – Student Minds – all look at the poster on the board – charity runs campaigns for people with eating disorders, and helps with people with depression. If you need more information see posters and Eva

Rosie – There is a charity ballot every term – she heard from the charity Headway and they say thank you for the money

25. ANY OTHER BUSINESS

26. NEXT MEETING
